

The Reflector

Student Editorial Team from Left to Right:

Row 1: Katelyn Mader Editor-in-Chief, Emily Brewer Associate Editor,
 Tomi May PR Chair, Annikka Stangil Treasurer
 Row 2: Reed Vollrath, Morgyn Thomas, Bailey Riley-Chatfield
 Row 3: Alex Heckman, Shawn McGuigan, Gretchen Lambie

The Reflector is the hub for student creativity on campus and we proudly represent the arts wherever we are. Since 1957, we have served as Shippensburg University's undergraduate journal of the arts for prose, poetry, and art. We are proud to represent our hard work in the form of this year's journal, which features works selected from more than 184 submissions.

Write the Ship's annual publication showcases a wide variety of subjects that demonstrate our vibrant academic community. We seek the best undergraduate research and essays from all departments and colleges across campus. Each piece is sponsored by a professor and represents outstanding academic achievements by Shippensburg University students.
